

How to renew your Avast Home Antivirus Key

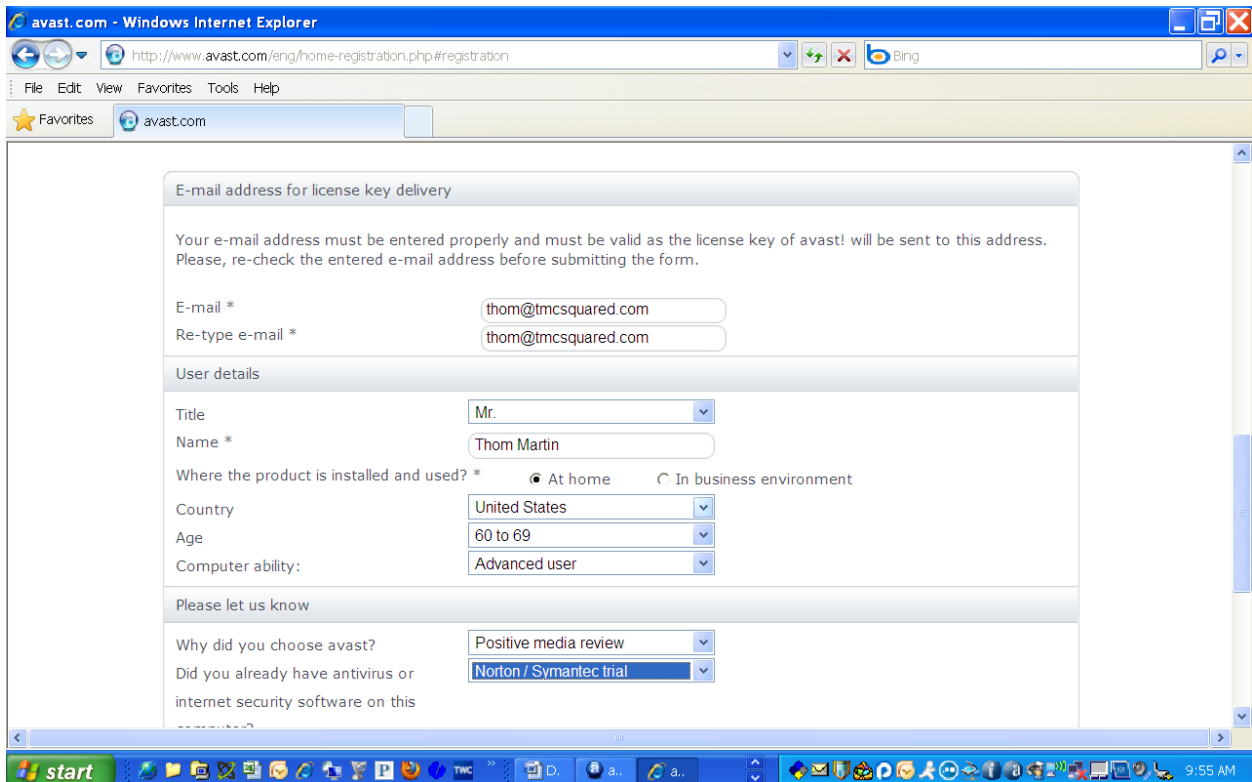

When your Avast Home Anti-Virus expires, click on the Avast icon located on your Windows' desktop. If the start-up screen appears, click the registration link, otherwise you will see this window appear. Click on Program Registration.

Clicking on program registration will bring you to the Avast registration page. Click on “My registration is expired, I need a new one.”

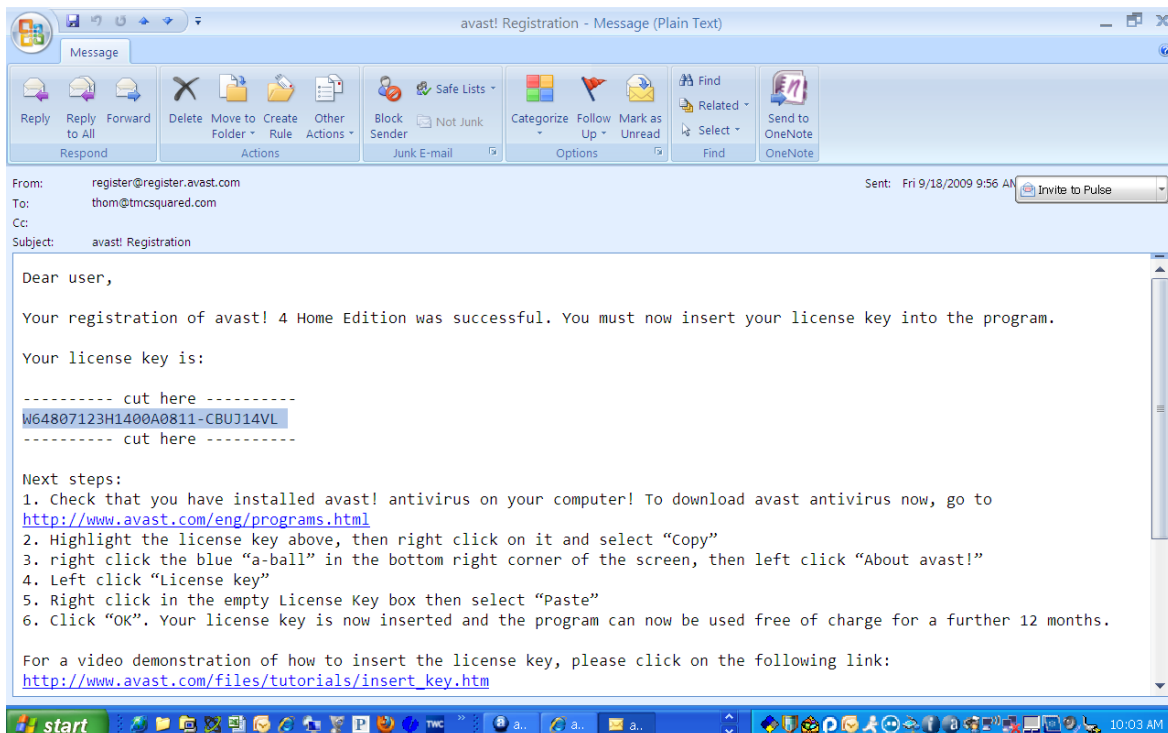

Enter your email address and other information.

Dear user,

Your registration of avast! 4 Home Edition was successful. You must now insert your license key into the program.

Your license key is:

W64807123H1400A0811-CBUJ14VL
----- cut here -----

Next steps:

1. Check that you have installed avast! antivirus on your computer! To download avast antivirus now, go to <http://www.avast.com/eng/programs.html>
2. Highlight the license key above, then right click on it and select "Copy"
3. right click the blue "a-ball" in the bottom right corner of the screen, then left click "About avast!"
4. Left click "License key"
5. Right click in the empty License Key box then select "Paste"
6. Click "OK". Your license key is now inserted and the program can now be used free of charge for a further 12 months.

For a video demonstration of how to insert the license key, please click on the following link:
http://www.avast.com/files/tutorials/insert_key.htm

Navigate back to the open registration box and click inside the text box with your mouse. While holding down the CTRL key, press the V key. This will paste your key into the box. Press the OK button.

You should see the thank you window next. If not, contact us at themartins@tmcsquared.com.
